

The New Jersey DO NOT CALL legislation was one of the more successful endeavors our state has ever accomplished. Our nuisance calls have dropped from approximately 8 per day to none. Great! Now if only we could do that with junk mail -- both electronic and paper.